

Crochet & Craft Classes in the Bride Valley, West Dorset

Do you want to learn to crochet, the yarn craft of the moment? Make Dorset buttons? Pick up some embroidery skills or add to your craft repertoire?

I am a qualified teacher and a Dorset show judge and my courses feature regularly at the WI's college, Denman, where crochet is always a big sell out!

I run informal classes for small groups in the beautiful Bride Valley, right by the sea. Tea, coffee and homemade cake is served. I can promise a fun day learning a new skill.
